FUNDING NEEDED FOR RUSSIA TRIP

The total cost for the trip is about $5000. We have been blessed to have received about half of that amount. We are so grateful to the Mt. Scott Church of God for giving a HUGE gift to help us get this far. We appreciate all of you that have given to support us in this ministry opportunity. If you would like to contribute to this ministry trip see page 3. Thank You!

Update on Russia trip

We continue to make plans for our ministry trip to Russia in October. The most recent change is that we found out that our original airline that we booked our flight to Moscow on quit flying into Moscow!

We were able to book on Delta and the good news is the fare turned out to be about $200 less than our original flight. We will now meet the rest of the team at JFK airport and fly together from there to Moscow.

We are currently preparing to do some teaching on the marriage relationship and what the Bible teaches concerning marriage and moral purity.

We also expect to speak to groups of men and women separately so we are each preparing appropriate teachings for those opportunities.

We will be hosting Dwayne Goldman the Church of God missionary from Chelyabinsk in August as he is speaking at the Oregon Camp meeting here in Portland. He will be able to tell us more about what to expect and what is being expected of us at that time.

Pastor Andrei Kolegov from Chelyabinsk stayed with us for five days in June and that was a wonderful time for us to get more familiar with the church he helps to pastor.

As time goes by and October gets closer we will have more details about the ministry we will be carrying out while in Russia.

Pastor Andrei enjoying lunch with us at Mo's in Lincoln City, Oregon. We had hoped to go whale watching that day but the weather didn't cooperate.

Georgia to Speak at Conference

Georgia has been invited to present two workshops in September at the "Betrayal Redeemed" conference to be held at the Oak Park Christian Center in Pleasant Hill, California.

Georgia will be accompanying the keynote speaker, Dr. Sandy Wilson from Portland whom Georgia has teamed up with at other conferences in Portland and Seattle.

New Book by Georgia Just Published!

Georgia has just published her newest book, “Wounded Traveler: Devotions for the Journey” Here are her comments about her latest creation:

“I think most of us would say (if we’re honest) that we are challenged at times to be faithful in reading our Bibles. We use all kinds of tools to make it easier and more programmed in order to have some kind of order in our reading, as if somehow that will force us or do the work for us. Some times it is harder than others to focus on the one thing that would really be comforting if only we knew where to look. A num- ber of women have expressed to me the almost overwhelming inability to seek God through His word during times of emotional trauma. I have experienced this myself. Where do I look? What can I find that will help me? Where is God when I need Him the most? Is God paying attention to my pain? To spend the time and energy paging through the Bible trying to find the verse or passage that will speak to a broken heart seems to be too hard and requires more strength or determination from us than is available. After thinking about this for a period of time, God gave me the idea to use something I had been working on for over a year and create a devotional book from it. The result is expressly for those who are going through difficult emotional circumstances and addresses some areas that are of particular interest. There are scripture verses with thoughts about God’s care, His mercy, love, and compassion in addition to blank space at the end of each page for notes. We need pointed reminders on a daily basis of God’s presence in our lives; that He is paying attention, and that He cares about our wounds more than we can imagine. His personal interest in each of us and our pain is illustrated by Psalms 56:8 “You keep track of all my sorrows. You have collected all my tears in your bottle. You have recorded each one in your book.” (NLT) We are all “wounded travelers” on this road called “life” and God has given us “devotions for the journey” that He walks along with us.”
